Escaped Convicts????

As I walked in the hallway on Tuesday morning Oct. 28, 1947 I saw a lot of school kids standing around and looking at what I thought was escaped convicts and it was only Jack Blowers & Roxie Rob-inette who had their hair all cut off. Bob Myers had his hair cut to look like a Mohawk Indian.

High Percentage

Roxie: "How do you spend your income?"
 Bob M.: "About 30 per cent for shelter, 30 per cent for clothing, 40 per cent for food, and 20 per cent for amusement."
 Roxie: "But that adds up to 120 per cent!"
 Bob M.: "Don't I know it!"

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1936, with 25 little folks, we started on our great adventure, which we thought would never end. But it did finally end!!

The roll call of our first year was answered by: Mary Bell, Jack Blowers, William Bookout, Richard Corle, John Cook, Phyllis Elmore, Donn Glentzer, Elaza Irenhart, Mary Lawhorn, Leta Lewis, Billie Marshall, Herbert Myers, Wanda Myers, Robert Meyers, Mary Martin, Nellie Martin, Betty Nibarger, Robert Park, Bonnie Sanders, Marjorie Stultz, Marjorie Urban, Barbara Wilson, Delphia William's, Audrey Lasley and Anne Cummins.

In the second year we gained, Max Gorle, Marie Cummins, Christina Davis, Herbert Hummer, Legora Markle, Sarah Yoder, Betty Watkins, Dorothy Irwin. We lost, William Bookout, Richard Corle, John Cook, Phyllis Elmore, Donna Glentzer, Eliza Isenhardt, Mary Lawhorn, Billie Marshall, Wanda Myers, Robert Park, Delphia William's, Anne Cummins.

In our third year we gained, Clarence Bell, Herman Davis, Virgil Twigg, James Votaw, Lloyd Lawhorn, Glenis Moses, Sameul Norris, Fredriok Whipple, Doris Hart, Carl Hart, Lillian Newton.

In our fourth year we gained, George Farris, Priscilla Tarr, and Bryon Nuss. We lost Clarence Bell, Mary Ball, Donna Glentzer.

In our fifth year we gained, Dorothy Bisenbuck, Phyllis Elmore, Betty Fogle, Audrey Lasley, Marilyn Kranner, and Vera Slack. We lost Bonnie Sanders.

In our sixth year we gained, Louella Glessner, We lost Virgil Twigg, Byron Nuss, Granklin Stande.

In our seventh year we gained, Leo Hummer. We lost Phyllis Elmore, Louella Glessner, Lillian Newton, Marilyn Kraner, Audrey Lasley, Glennis Moses, Franklin Staude, Marjorie Stultz, Herbert Hummer.

In our eight year we gained, Rober Price, and Betty James. We lost, Herman Davis, George Farris, Carl Hart, Leo Hummer, Lloyd Lawhorn, Mary Lawhorn, Leta Lewis, Legora Markle, Betty Martin, Nellie Martin, and Betty Watkins.

In our ninth year we lost Robert Price. We gained Lindy James, and Eldon Waters.

In our tenth year we lost, Barbara Wilson and Lindy James. We gained B asil Whipple, Susanna Updike, Kenneth Weaver, and Darrel Weaver.

In our eleventh year we lost, Kenneth Weaver, and James Votaw. We gained, Robert Robinette.

Now we come to our last and final year, (we hope) with the roll answered by: Marjorie Urban, Vera Slack, Susanna Updike, Betty James, Jack Blowers, Bob Myers, Robert Robinette, Darrell Weaver, Frederick Whipple, Eldon Waters and Basil Whipple.

Betty James, born in Greene Township, Jay County, October 20, 1930, is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Clarence James. She came to Poling in the eighth grade.

"Senior Prophecy"

As I arrived in New York one day, I registered at one of the largest hotels, and who greeted me but Bob Meyers. He said he had a wonderful job as bell boy, and that his wife formerly Alice Thomas, and his five little children were all very fine. What a shock this was to me, my old schoolmate.

As I went for my afternoon walk the next day I happened to see a theatre with large letters naming, "Opening Tonight, Starring Margie Urban and Darrel Weaver in Romeo and Juliet." I went in to see them and they played their parts very well. After the show I saw Margie and she said that they were to be married soon. Upon leaving the theatre I noticed a dried-up old man walking toward me with a smile on his face. At first I didn't recognize him, but at the second glance I discovered it was none other than Chink Whipple. I couldn't understand why he was so cross-eyed. After questioning him, I found out he was in school he made so many eyes at a certain girl that his eyes stayed that way. I asked him if he was married, and he said he had a very lovely wife whom I discovered was Priscilla Tarr.

Continuing my journey to Boston, I saw a large house with the name Rev. Eldon Waters. I decided to go in and see him. As I opened the door I heard "I pronounce you man and wife" I tiptoed in and discovered he was marrying none other than Betty James and Wendell Clark. I wished them a lot of happiness and continued on my journey.

Upon stopping in Detroit, I saw a sign, "Ye Old Tavern" and underneath it read "Managers formerly of Poling". Deciding there might be some more of my friends, I decided to go in. I found Jack Blowers and Roxie Robinette behind the bar and can you guess who was putting on the floor show? None other than Nancy Vogel and Leta Lewis. I decided not to disturb them for they seemed to be having a wonderful time. I went to an opera that night, just to pass time, and was I shocked when I saw on stage Susie Updike, Vera Slack, Benny Bradley and Paul Bunsold. The boys were staging a duel over the girls.

On my journey back to Poling I stopped in Fort Wayne, where I saw Basil Whipple. He said he had married his school day sweetheart Mary Davis and was the proud father, of six lovely children. I wished him success and stayed to tell all my friends about the Class of 48.

Senior Class Will

Article 1, Section 1

We the senior class of "48", after taking the required Mental and Physical Examinations that are required before graduation can become final, are about to leave this house of learning. By the way, being the super class that we are, we have all passed the tests with flying colors.

Article 1, Section 2

But when about to leave we have found a few things that were no longer of use to us as boys and girls of the high school age, we decided to will them to our dear old friends at P.H.S.

Article 1, Section 3

We know that there are things that are very precious to boys and girls of the high school age. We hope that our dear, dear, dear, old class mates (the fiends) shall cherish these treasures and shall increase and develop them and pass them on when they graduate providing they ever do.

Article 2, Section 1

We shall expect them to guard them with all their life and bubble-gum just as we did when the past graduated classes willed them to us.

Article 2, Section 2

We, the Seniors of "48", hope that they will be of one half the value to you as they were to us. We hope that when you are using them in your day's activities, you shall remember us the Senior class of "48" long departed (We Hope).

Article 2, Section 3

Just one thing we must not forget that is the dear, dear, dear, old gray headed teachers of P.H.S. To them we leave all the peace and quiet they have wished for and dreamed of since first we entered P. H. S.

Article 3, Section 1

We the Seniors of "48", the party of the first part, leave to the persons (Whom we shall refer to as the party of the second part) the things listed below, hoping that they are in their right minds.

Article 3, Section 2

But, if in the years to come, we the party of the first part find that the party of the second part is not using the privileges and fine points of nature to the best of their ability and carrying out the orders we have left for them to follow, we the party of the first part reserve the right to have our lawyer (Mr. Hugh Hammitt) to take from the parties of the second part these privileges and fine points of nature with which every person is not fortunate enough to be endowed with in this cruel world.

Article 3, Section 3

We, then, the party of the first, part on this day of One Thousand and Nine Hundred and Forty Seven do recognize that this will is signed, sealed, and witnessed and is ready to be delivered to the party of the second part.

Article 4, Section 1

I, Jackson Blowers, will and bequeath my button shoes to J.R. Cook.
I, Blondie James, will and bequeath my blonde hair to Carlene Pattison.
I, Susie Updike, will and bequeath my overalls to Maxine Isch.

I, Bobby Meyers, will and bequeath my ability to get blamed for everything whether I do it or not to Benny Bradley.

I, Roxie Robinette, will and bequeath my ability to get along with Nancy Vogel, to Richard Grogg.

I, Vera Slack, will and bequeath my tiny waist line to Phyllis Foltz.

I, Marjorie Urban, will and bequeath my ability to work in the kitchen to whoever wants it.

I, Eldon Waters, will and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Jack Robinette.

I, Darrel Weaver, will and bequeath my ability to catch a baseball to Don Foltz.

I, Fred Whipple, will and bequeath my ability to move around on the basket-ball floor to Donald Foltz.

I, Basil Whipple will and bequeath my ability to get along with the girls to Wolfie Grogg.

This document is signed, sealed, and delivered on this day of 1948. In the month of April 19.

Poling has had a very good year in basketball: as a matter of fact the most successful season for a good many years. The team will lose five seniors all in the first ten. There will however be one regular, Dick Updike returning. The remaining five are all sophomores, which will help aspects a little. Because of the three games we have won from Bryant in succession, we still have possession of the Poling-Bryant basketball Trophy, "The Little Brown Jug."

Following are the players that made up the first ten who went to the sectional.

Name	Grade	Pos.
Jack blowers	12	C
Eldon Waters	12	F
Fred Whittle	12	F
Roxie Rocinette	12	G
Bob Meyers	12	F
Dick Updike	10	G
